

“Ol’ 556 – Alaska’s Mighty Steam Engine”

Shannon Cartwright, well known Alaskan illustrator and author, has completed the third printing of her great story of 557’s sister, Alaska Railroad #556. Including numerous illustrations done by Shannon, this book is ideal for children or the young at heart. In this edition she has included 4 pages featuring “The Return of 557” with photos of the 557 restoration. Shannon is a good friend of 557 and copies purchased from the Engine 557 Restoration Company are signed by the author.

Copies are available for $15.00 ea. plus $7.00 for delivery by USPS Priority Mail. We can include a second copy for $15.00 in the same mailer at no additional shipping cost. Purchase on-line or by mailing a check to the address at the bottom of the page.

Number of copies, postage included.	One $20.00 USD	Two $33.00 USD
-------------------------------------	-----------------	-----------------

Engine 557 Restoration Company
P.O. Box 875360
Wasilla, Alaska 99687-5360

To save postage, copies can be picked up at the 557 Engine house. You should call (907) 350-4340 first to verify the times that a staff member will be available.